DMCA Policy

Copyright holders may submit infringement notices identifying the protected work, the allegedly infringing material, contact information, a good-faith statement, and any other information required by applicable law.

Users may submit lawful counter-notifications when they believe material was removed or restricted by mistake or misidentification.

Censored Expressions may remove, restrict, or restore content in response to legally sufficient notices, counter-notices, or other rights-owner communications.

Third-party content, embeds, links, and quoted material may remain subject to the rights and policies of the original publisher or platform.
